

CHINA:country,population,language

China is the third largest country in the world, 17 times the size of France, The world biggest cities are also Chinese, for instance Shanghai.

More than a billion people live in China,who are of different ethnic groups. As population is already big, Chinese Government has enforced a limitation of one Child per Family. Most Chinese prefer that their Child be a boy, because boys remain with their parents and can take care of them when they are old, whereas girls will live in the family of their husband,

Many languages are spoken in China, the main one is Mandarin, which as the official language is learned at school , together with the local language, Mandarin is the most used language in the world, It has got a sing song accent,
