

Chinese Calendar

The date of Chinese New Year changes every year. But Chinese use the same Calendar as we do, In the past they used a Lunar Calendar as life depended very much on agriculture, which is influenced by the Moon,

Chinese Horoscope is based on a 12 lunar years Cycle, each year corresponding to an animal; Rat, Ox, Tiger, Rabbit, Dragon, Snake, Horse, Ram, Monkey, Rooster, Dog and Pig,

Each Animal has good qualities and faults and transmits them to those born in the year which they govern : for instance, Children borne in 2001, the year of the Snake, are wise and attractive, they obtain what they want, even by cunning, they are resolute and have often luck at games,
